

Proudly Presents: Non-Evaluative Child Interview Training

When: June 13 and 14, 2024

Time: 9:00 am to 5:00 pm each day

Where: Via online platform: involves participant interaction; computer or other device with a camera and microphone will be required

Trainers: Bev Churchill and Viviane Wingerak

Who should attend: Any professional who meets with children and believes children should have a voice in family justice matters that affect them.

What you will learn:

The 2-day workshop will cover:

- Child development—ages and stages
- Trauma and impact on children
- Benefits and cautions of listening to the voice of the child/adolescent
- Mechanisms for hearing the voice of the child
- Integrating the child's voice into different dispute resolution options
- Background and history of Hear the Child Reports
- How to conduct a HTC interview and write a non-evaluative HTC report
- Effective interviewing skills, inc. video conferencing
- Sample questions and reports
- The art of introspection—understanding how our values, life experiences, culture and biases affect the interviewer's lens
- Pitfalls to avoid as a non-evaluative child interviewer
- Review of case law with respect to HTC reports

Opportunities to practice the skills of conducting a non-evaluative child interview and writing a non-evaluative report will be integrated over the 2-day workshop giving participants the opportunity to develop or enhance their proficiency in conducting non-evaluative child interviews and writing non-evaluative reports.
